

Please delay the rule change and allow time for a public debate. This proposed change will have a tremendous effect on whether or not citizens receive their information from a variety of sources, and a fully informed public is the underpinning of a democratic government.